COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES

COMES NOW, Plaintiff Frank Van Leeuwen (“Plaintiff” or “Van Leeuwen”), through undersigned counsel, and files this lawsuit against Defendant General Electric Company (“Defendant” or “General Electric”), and for his Complaint shows the following:

I. Nature of Complaint

Plaintiff brings this action to obtain full and complete relief and to redress the unlawful employment practices described herein.

2.

This action seeks declaratory relief, along with liquidated and actual damages, attorney's fees and costs for Defendant's failure to pay federally mandated overtime wages to Plaintiff in violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, 29 U.S.C. §201 et seq. (hereinafter the "FLSA").

II. Jurisdiction and Venue

3.

The jurisdiction of this Court is invoked pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) and 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

4.

Defendant is a New York corporation and resides in this district. Defendant does business in and is engaged in commerce in the State of Georgia. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because Defendant resides in this district and a substantial part of the events and omissions that give rise to Plaintiff's claims occurred in this district.

III. Parties and Facts

5.

Plaintiff was employed by Defendant from August 12, 2013 to May 16, 2014.

6.

In particular, Plaintiff was employed as a telecommunications equipment installer.

7.

Plaintiff was an “employee” of Defendant, as that term has been defined by the FLSA, 29 U.S.C.S. § 201 et seq., 29 U.S.C. § 203(e).

8.

Throughout his employment with Defendant, Plaintiff was employed by Defendant as a non-exempt telecommunications equipment installer entitled to overtime compensation for hours worked over 40 in a workweek.

9.

Throughout his employment with Defendant, Plaintiff was paid on an hourly basis and was entitled to overtime compensation for hours worked over 40 in workweeks.

10.

Throughout his employment with Defendant, Plaintiff regularly worked an amount of time that was more than 40 hours in given workweeks and was not paid the overtime wage differential for hours he worked over 40 in such weeks.

11.

Defendant is a private employer engaged in interstate commerce, and its gross revenues exceed $500,000 per year.

12.

During Plaintiff's employment with Defendant the company suffered or permitted Plaintiff to work in excess of 40 hours in given workweeks without receiving overtime compensation.

13.

During Plaintiff's employment with General Electric, Defendant maintained a policy of requiring Plaintiff to work overtime hours off the clock.

14.

During Plaintiff's employment with Defendant, Defendant knew or had reason to know that Plaintiff worked in excess of 40 hours in workweeks without receiving overtime compensation for such hours over 40.

15.

Defendant is an “employer” within the definition of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §203(d).

16.

Defendant is governed by and subject to the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §204 and §207.

17.

During Plaintiff’s employment with General Electric, Defendant failed to keep accurate time records for all hours worked by Plaintiff.

18.

Plaintiff is entitled to overtime pay for the hours he worked over 40 in given workweeks. Defendant’s practices violate the provisions of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 201, et seq. including but not limited to 29 U.S.C. § 207. As a result of Defendant’s unlawful practices, Plaintiff has suffered lost wages.

Count I

Violation of the Overtime Wage Requirement of the Fair Labor Standards Act

19.

Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint with the same force and effect as if set forth herein.

20.

Defendant has violated the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 201, et seq. including but not limited to 29 U.S.C. § 207, by failing to pay overtime wages for hours Plaintiff worked in excess of (40) hours in given workweeks.

21.

The FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 207, requires employers to pay employees one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of (40) hours in a workweek.

22.

Defendant knew or had reason to know Plaintiff regularly worked over 40 hours in workweeks without overtime compensation.

23.

Defendant's actions, policies and/or practices as described above violate the FLSA's overtime requirement by regularly and repeatedly failing to compensate Plaintiff at the required overtime rate.

24.

Defendant knew, or showed reckless disregard for the fact that Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff overtime compensation in violation of the FLSA.

25.

Defendant failed to accurately report, record and/or preserve records of hours worked by Plaintiff, and thus has failed to make, keep and preserve records with respect to each of their employees sufficient to determine their wages, hours and other conditions and practices of employment, in violation of the FLSA.

26.

Defendant's violations of the FLSA were willful and in bad faith.

27.

Pursuant to the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 216, Plaintiff is entitled to recover the unpaid overtime wage differential, liquidated damages in an equal amount to unpaid overtime, attorneys' fees, and the costs of this litigation incurred in connection with these claims.

Prayer for Relief

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

- (A) Grant Plaintiff a trial by jury as to all triable issues of fact;
- (B) Enter judgment against Defendant and awarding Plaintiff unpaid wages pursuant to the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 206(d), 207, and 216, liquidated damages as provided by 29 U.S.C. § 216, pre-judgment interest on unpaid wages, court costs, expert witness fees, and reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216, and all other remedies allowed under the FLSA; and,

- (C) Grant declaratory judgment declaring that Plaintiff's rights have been violated and that Defendant violated the FLSA;
- (D) Grant Plaintiff leave to add additional state law claims if necessary; and
- (E) Award Plaintiff such further and additional relief as may be just and appropriate.

This 7th day of October, 2014.
